

From: Credit Union National Association [mailto:webmaster@cuna.org]

Sent: Tuesday, June 06, 2006 1:25 AM

Subject: New Message from CUNA

Dear Credit Union National Association Member,

Due to recent phishing attack and identity theft associated with them Credit Union National Association, Visa and MasterCard have decided to temporary deactivate your debit card tied to your Credit Union account.

This security measure is to protected your debit card againts unauthorized transaction on your account.

We apologize for any inconvenience this may cause but Credit Union National Association, Visa and MasterCard feels that is a necessary precaution to protect your account information.

Your Debit Card tied to your Credit Union account must be reactivated before use.

Activate Your Card Online at Credit Union National Association Website

Click here if your debit card is issue by VISA

Click here if your debit card is issue by MasterCard

Select the Activate Card link

Enter your card number and click Submit Activation Request

There is no need to call us in response to a phone message we've left in the last three days unless you see any transactions you don't recognize. If you have any problems or questions, please call the Customer Service number on the back of your card.

Sincerely,
Credit Union National Association, Visa and MasterCard Fraud Department

Copyright 1996-2006, Credit Union National Association. All rights reserved.

Copyright 1996-2006, Visa International Service Association. All Rights Reserved

Copyright 1994-2006 MasterCard International Incorporated. All rights reserved.